

Public Viewing License Contract

If you would like to show a film to your group, you may purchase a “Public Viewing Site License.” You can use this movie event as a fundraising opportunity for your organization, church or local cause.

AVAIYA offers a unique opportunity in which the Screening Host (you) and AVAIYA split the ticket revenue proceeds 50/50.

The initial cost to host an event is $100.00 for a “Public Viewing Site License.” (This is refunded before we split the proceeds)

You will receive a “Public Viewing” DVD for screening.
This DVD does not have the Warning at the beginning reminding viewers that films are for personal viewing only.

After purchasing a Public Viewing License, you may purchase bulk copies of our films for up to 75% off the original price to sell, gift, auction off, etc.
(You keep all the profit from your DVD sales)

Your event will be promoted via our websites, calendars and other social media outlets if you wish to invite others to join you.

We have several hosting/marketing resources to support you in promoting the screenings which you can download at www.avaiya.com

Why Do I Need a Public Viewing License to Host a Group Screening?

Creating these films to share with the world costs quite a bit.
Will Arntz, the creator of What The Bleep spent 5 Million Dollars making his film.
Screening events allows film makers like us to recoup our costs which we then reinvest in future films, such as The Oneness Revolution, String Theory and others.
Illegally showing films dishonors our work, YOUR INTEGRITY and what we are trying to promote in the world.

Would you appreciate going to work each week and never getting paid for your efforts?

To purchase a site license please fill out the form below.

We are excited to partner with you in hosting a Public Viewing.

Important Info: Please read the instructions carefully.
